

The True Northerner.

O. W. ROWLAND - EDITOR.
PAW PAW, MICHIGAN, SEPT. 7, 1883

The greenbackers of Pennsylvania are genuine flatists. They assert in their platform that money is solely a creation of law without regard to the material used. Make it out of leather, gentlemen, and it will wear longer. "There's nothing like leather."

The democrats of Michigan are guilty of ingratitude, the basest of all crimes. It was the great and good Begole who lifted them out of the slough of despond, and who drew them up from the horrible pit of perpetual defeat, and now, most unkindly of all, they propose to throw the old man overboard for a mere Shoemaker.

We had the pleasure a few days since of meeting Hon. E. W. Keightley, Third Auditor of the U. S. Treasury, on the C. & W. M. R. R. Mr. Keightley speaks very hopefully of the prospects of republican success in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Iowa, and thinks the republicans have a fair prospect of securing the Legislature of Maryland. That would be a victory indeed.

Pennsylvania greenbackers in order to put the matter strong, in their platform twice demand that the government should issue what they fondly dream would be money, in sufficient volume to meet the wants of the country. They also ask for imposts upon such imported merchandise as is or can be produced in this country, which is all right, but what is the use of it from their stand-point. The government can make money easier than it can collect impost duties.

Instead of getting rid of monopolies free trade means placing us at the mercy of the cruellest and most unscrupulous monopolies that exist—of monopolies so powerful that they continually force the English government to wars to extend their markets, and have to-day 300,000,000 people under the British flag who are virtually compelled to buy English goods, besides as many more in small, weak nations who are terrorized by British power into free trade, and the strangling of their own manufactures in order that Englishmen may thrive at their expense.—Toledo Blade.

School opened Monday with a good attendance.

Johnny Barrows' old white horse turned up Jack. Saturday night, and passed in his checks.

What will become of Prospect Lake personal, when the present correspondent climbs Jacobs' ladder?

Dell says all he has to do to prepare the new postal note, is to stick it on the fence and fire his shot-gun at it.

The dam left the grist mill last Saturday night, for the second time since Gray and Fisher took possession. There is now a mill by a dam site, but no dam by a mill site.

Lawton.

P. G. Kennedy visited at Colon last week.
Wm. Roger of Kalamazoo has been doing the town.

Elly Roberts is home from Benton Harbor for a short time.

Melvin Hayes does the janitor work at the school house this year.

Levi Stoker has purchased the furniture stock of H. C. Watson.

Lew Dustin is now night baggage smasher at the M. C. R. R. depot.

W. S. McKinney talks of going back to Hastings, Neb., next week.

Mr. Tannaubum of Denver, Col., is the guest of Henry Desenberg.

The young people of this place will picnic at Gravel lake next Saturday.

John Pelton, Sr., returned last Friday from Detroit after quite a lengthy stay.

Alonzo Mitchell and wife returned last week from an extended tour in the west.

H. C. Watson has been rusticated in Ohio preparatory to going into business at Flint.

School commenced Monday with a good list of scholars to grind the ignorance out of.

N. J. Smith of Big Rapids, has been visiting his brother-in-law F. J. Lich of this place.

Miss Bert. McElheny returned last Sunday from Bangor after a pleasant visit with friends.

Mrs. C. W. Gardner and her daughter Mrs. Lillian Thompson are visiting relatives at Cooper.

F. J. Lich and W. S. McKinney were enjoying themselves at the lake last week camping out.

W. L. Barker intends to move with his family to Nebraska about Oct. 1st and will make that his future home.

Rumored that George Robinson will lose another cook. He thinks the boys might keep away. How is it, Bill?

Our heavy weight baggage smasher and former clerk and book keeper of "Cheap John" came near having a collision last week. No blood shed.

The new crosswalk which has been put down on Main street is quite an improvement, and another is greatly needed between the two hardware.

B. F. Phillips, who seems to have had hard luck with his mill, has put in new machinery and made extensive repairs, and is now prepared for business.

Some of the sidewalks on the street leading east of Joan McKoy's drug store are regular dead-falls, and should be either torn up or replaced by new ones.

Johnny Hall now bears the name of "the handsome drayman," having bought out Levi Stoker. Some of the girls think that the name is a great deal more appropriate than before.

Rev. J. Hoyt preached his farewell sermon last Sunday and left this week for conference. The general opinion is that Mr. Hoyt will remain another year and preach to the Lawtonites.

Quite a joke on the boys that pumped the hand-car over to Paw Paw the other night to take in the theater, and to behold there was no play! They said they got up a sweat anyway and puffed like a locomotive.

Three of the best looking young ladies of Lawton walked to Horsey lake last week, took their grab, ate it, and hooped it back over the highway without even blistering their feet. This knocks the boys clear into the shade.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. W. Wells will be grieved to learn that having overtaxed her mind she has become partially insane, and last week made an attempt on her life with a razor. It is hoped that her insanity is only temporary. At this writing she is considerably better.

The Sunday school picnic given at the school grounds was a damper on the little folks, who expected to go to the lake and have a good time. They say that as long as they are obliged to roam on the school ground ten months in the year, they prefer to picnic elsewhere or not at all.

A letter from the Muskegon base ball team says they would like to play the Lawtons at this place, Sept. 10th, and a game will no doubt be arranged. The boys are also trying to arrange games with the Battle Creek, Niles, Grand Rapids, and Leadville Blues of Leadville, Col., who are making a tour through the state.

Lawton Lodge F. & A. M. had their hall packed almost to suffocation last Saturday evening. A special train brought brothers from Paw Paw, and members were also present from Mattawan and Schoolcraft. The 3d degree work was exemplified in good form, the "workers" showing marked improvement. Refreshments were served at the Robinson House, to the satisfaction of the sixty who participated.

THREE RIVERS Seminary and Kindergarten

Will open its Fall Term, Sept. 4th at Three Rivers.

All branches taught in Graded and High Schools, to which is added Penmanship, drawing and Painting, Phonography, Telegraphy, Commercial Department, Music, (Instrumental and Vocal), Preparatory Department (for teachers), and Kindergarten, are here taught.

With increased capital and competent faculty, we do not fear to assert to any who may wish to patronize us, that we can guarantee more for the coming year than we did for the past year.

Before attending any school, examine our methods of instruction.

That the plan of the school as arranged by the originator, was not at fault, has been demonstrated by the practical work of the past year, and has the approval of some of the best educators.

The following from the pen of Rev. J. W. Hancock, explains itself:

"I may truly say I am as much interested as ever in the work and results of teaching. That which is novel in the proposed enterprise, accords well with certain ideas of my own, slowly developed in the course of my experience as teacher."

TRUE Temperance

Is not signing a pledge or taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because of the non-removal of the cause—liquor. The way to make a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreadful artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellects to premature graves, and desolation, strife and unhappiness into so many families.

Iron and Brown's Iron Bitters, a true non-alcoholic tonic, made in Baltimore, Md., by the Brown Chemical Company, who are old druggists and in every particular reliable, will, by removing the craving appetite of the drunkard, and by curing the nervousness, weakness, and general ill health resulting from intemperance, do more to promote temperance, in the strictest sense than any other means now known.

It is a well authenticated fact that many medicines, especially "bitters," are nothing but cheap whiskey vilely concocted for use in local option countries. Such is not the case with Brown's Iron Bitters. It is a medicine, a cure for weakness and decay in the nervous, muscular, and digestive organs of the body, producing good, rich blood, health and strength. Try one bottle. Price $1.00.
